

This community service activity aims to motivate high school/vocational high school history teachers in Gunung Kidul Regency in writing national journal articles in order to improve their understanding, ability, and technical practice of writing national journal articles

by Dr. Miftahuddin, M.Hum.

ABSTRACT

This community service activity aims to motivate high school/vocational high school history teachers in Gunung Kidul Regency in writing national journal articles in order to improve their understanding, ability, and technical practice of writing national journal articles which include: (1) Providing self-motivation (building will) high school/vocational high school history teachers in writing national journal articles, (2) Providing understanding to high school/vocational high school history teachers in writing national journal articles, (3) Improving the technical skills of high school/vocational high school history teachers in writing national journal articles. The target of this activity is high school/vocational high school history teachers in Gunung Kidul Regency who have the will and ability to be trained in writing national journal articles. The selection and determination of targets for this training had rational-strategic considerations, efforts to improve the quality of high school/vocational high school history teachers regarding writing national journal articles through training in writing national journal articles for high school/vocational high school history teachers in Gunung Kidul Regency and 25 teachers were recruited. , the training will be held for 2 days or at least 16 hours of meetings

The method used in this community service activity is counseling / upgrading filled with lectures, questions and answers, case examples, simulations. Meanwhile, the evaluation of aspects of the implementation of the training is carried out by giving a questionnaire. Indicators of success in the implementation of training there are 2 methods used, namely: (1) Evaluation during the training process, and (2) post-training evaluation.

Kata Kunci: service, artitel, journal